

WVDA State Specialists/Inspectors

Wade Stiltner – 304-550-0589
Rebecca Moretto – 304-257-8919

West Virginia Department of Agriculture
Plant Industries Division
1900 Kanawha Boulevard, East
Charleston, WV 25305-0178
(304) 558-2212

If you are no longer keeping bees, check this box and we will take your name off of our mailing list.

Annual Application for Apiary Registration
As required by Code of West Virginia, Chapter 19, Article 13

Name:		Counties where hives are located:
Mailing Address:
City:	State:	Zip Code:

Telephone Contact Information

Home	Work	Cell

Email:

Apiary Information at the time of application:

Number of colonies for Honey Production:		Number of Apiaries:
Number of colonies used for queen / nuc production (sale or increases):		Pounds of honey produced in previous year:
Number of colonies used specifically for pollination:
Total Number of Colonies:

Request for inspection for:

Interstate Movement Distribute honeybees or queens I am a new beekeeper

Beekeepers needing assistance with honey bee pests or diseases should contact WVDA staff (names and numbers listed above). The WVDA is committed to maintaining and promoting healthy colonies in West Virginia for honey production, pollination and the sale of bees.

Date _____ Signature _____

SWARM LIST (This section is voluntary.)

If you wish to be included on a "Swarm List", enter the county (ies) you are interested in here:

Your name, county and telephone number will be made available to the public for the purpose of removing swarms.

HONEYBEE BEST MANAGEMENT PRACTICES (This section is voluntary.)

I have read the "West Virginia Honey Bee Best Management Practices" as written in §61-2-4, Limits on Liability and will adhere to this Voluntary program. For additional information regarding this program visit the WVDA webpage then Divisions/Plant Industries/Apiary and follow the applicable hyperlink.

Yes, I will participate _____

Signature